

CYOP peer review for marcos.4

For the work we divided it half and half. Everything was good and there were no issues with our teamwork. The communication between us was good as well. There were no issues with us doing the same thing and pulling or pushing anything. Marcos did the drawings and helped with the css styling as well. He helped a lot with making everything look nice. He also helped with the coding and linking pages together.